Norway Tent Observed Its Tenth Anniversary at Lakeside Inn

It was a great day Wednesday for the Daughters of Union Veterans, as the Norway Tent observed its tenth birthday

at the Lakeside Inn, Portland, Maine.

There were thirty Portlanders made the trip, 25 of them in a big Grey Line Bus.

The day was perfect, and as many had never been at Lakeside Inn where the get-together was held, the whole day was a revelation with the many attractions

both outside and in.

Through the kindness of Mrs. Jessie Insley, of Brooklyn, N. Y., owner of the Inn, and Mrs. Ferdinand F. Swan, the caretakers, were able to open the house to the visitors. The forenoon was devoted to inspection of the building, which was served in the large dining room, and 74 were seated at the tables. One table was filled with the Portland members who were present at the first anniversary of the institution of the Norway Tent. The President, Mrs. M. A. Bancroft, was a

STANDARD OIL COMPANY OF NEW YORK

Good morning, motor?

"SORRY, BOSS, but it's not good morning for me. I'm sick. If you take me out today, you'll drive in second most of the time. I warned you. It's that cheap gas you've been buying. I'm as choked up with carbon as a kerosene lamp in a country store. My valves are about as tight as a broken sieve. Can't you grasp the idea that I'm as delicately adjusted inside as a watch? I get really peeved at the stuff you dump into me. Where do you get it, anyway? How much do you save? A few pennies—and then pay dollars to get me back into shape. And while I am getting this grouch out of my system, I want to say a word about oil. If I don't get a crank case full of good oil pretty soon, you'll be walking. I've been working for a week on nothing much but mud and gasoline. A wheelbarrow wouldn't stand for it. My bearings feel like sandpaper. I haven't enough compression to blow up a toy balloon. Trust me right and I'm good for another twenty thousand miles. Give me good gas and oil, Boss, please."

HAVE YOU TRIED SOCONY SPECIAL GASOLINE?

If you haven't, it's probably because of the stiff competition of the Socony Gasoline pump right alongside it.

It's pretty hard to convince a man who has been using Socony Gasoline for years with never a snort nor a splutter from his carburetor that he ought to pay a few cents more a gallon for something different.

However, if you have an old car or a new high compression motor and want to test the capacity of your engine on a particularly creamy cut of anti-knock gasoline, Socony Special is worth trying. It gives you a little better pickup in traffic, a little finer silk in the purr of your engine, and a stronger, more dogged flow of power on hills.

You may get along perfectly well without these "extras" but you can scarcely help enjoying them, and you surely will appreciate the absence of knocking.

Fill up your tank with Socony Special today. Like Socony Gasoline and Socony Motor Oil it's tested thirteen times before it reaches your car.

Let your motor be the judge

Campfire Girls Serve Banquet—Ladies'
Club Hold Meeting—J. C. Kilgour Gaining.

The Chicagami Campfire Girls prepared and served a bountiful mother and daughter banquet to about eighteen people at the Masonic Hall, Saturday evening. Mrs.
Beatrice Severance and Mrs. Mary Watson assisted and advised them, but the cooking and planning was done by the girls themselves.

Katherine and Adelaide Bailey were at their home here, Sunday. Adelaide remained with her mother, who is in ill health, while Katherine returned to Portland, where she will work this summer.

Eleanor Walker is home from business college for the summer.
Mary Watson and daughter, Arlene, visited her home on Smart's Hill, Sunday.

Frank Stearns has purchased a seven passenger Buick sedan.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stearns and two children, Mrs. Aris Stearns, Sarah Stearns and Bryn Smith were in Norway, Friday.

There was a meeting of the Ladies' Club at the Library, Wednesday afternoon. About nine were present. It was voted to have the meeting in June a guest meeting and invite Miss Harriett Abbott of Fryeburg to speak on Nature subject.
The Club will hold a lawn party sometime in July.

Mrs. Rachel Kimball, who has been helping her mother, has returned home.
Jack Bassett has a Ford touring car.
The Misses Butterfield were at their home in Standish over the week end.

There will be pictures every Tuesday evening at Wiley's Theatre. Many good pictures have been secured for the season.

Evis Smith is going to assist Mrs. Beatrice Severance this summer in the Beatrice Beauty Shoppe.

Charles Chandler took Mrs. James Chandler to Augusta to see her husband, last week. He remains about the same.

Irma Hodgdon is visiting Mrs. E. M.
Harmou.
J. C. Kilgour, who has been very sick with bronchial pneumonia, and has had two trained nurses, is gaining slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Davis and granddaughter, Mollie, also Mr. and Mrs. Du-reps of South Paris and Mr. and Mrs.
Clifford Davis of Norway were Sunday callers at Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Davis'.

Joseph Rust's Journal of 1803

No. 3

Arranged and Edited by C. F. Whitman

Monday, June 13th, 1803. Wind from S.W. and very warm. Levi Frank making a sweep for the saw. Asa Dunham Jr. and Joseph Jr. (his son) planting potatoes.

Tuesday, June 14th, wind southerly and warm. Asa Jr. and Thos. George planted some potatoes, then went to re-planting the fences. Geo. Doughty putting up a pen at Solitude. (Perhaps this was what was later known as the J. L. House, which sloped to the west and would be seen from the opposite ridge, as will appear in next item).

Wednesday, June 16th. At 3 p. m., Samuel Perkins informed me that my house at Solitude had fallen into the cellar, making the intelligence public, assistance came in abundance and righted it and secured it from danger. (Samuel Perkins, a Revolutionary soldier, lived on the ridge between what is now the Lehigh Inn and the Shepard place. He was sold to the adjoining owners in 1809 and moved into Paris).

Thursday, June 16th. Wind easterly, with some rain. Asa Jr. doing some jobs.

Friday, June 17th, wind westerly and cool. Asa Jr. planting the Westons' third time. Went to Craigie's to get some nails. I met with the school committee at Stevens' Tavern (Joseph Stevens, the first settler, kept at that time a public house. He lived on the Boomer hill).

Saturday, June 18th, wind S.E. with fine weather. The Rev. Mr. Hooper preached at the new meeting house. (Elmer Cole Hooper was the Baptist minister who preached on Paris Hill. He had a farm on the roundabout road to South Paris. He had two wives. When his first wife was attacked with her mortal illness, he told a woman whom he knew not to be in a hurry to marry, as he expected his wife to die soon and then he would marry her. She waited and became his second wife).

Monday, June 20th. Wind fresh from the N.W. and clear. My east garden free from down, as the weather cleared up in the night. Asa Jr. looking up the creek to work on the road. Found them at half past 10 a. m., and went to meet the "commandant," John Pike (John Pike was the "master cutter" of that day with a scow team. Many buildings had to be moved onto new roads. His services were in great demand). Mon Frore went to the meeting at J. Stinchfield's. (On all country roads in the Parsons neighborhood).

Tuesday, June 21st, wind northerly and cool. Asa Jr. and (William) Dunlap drilling boards. (Dunlap soon moved away where he went to is not known).

Wednesday, June 22d. Wind southerly and warm. Geo. Doughty and Asa Jr. went to work on the road near Steep Falls (Doughty afterwards moved to Greenwood).

Thursday, June 23d. Wind southerly and very warm. I went to the funeral of Col. Levi Hubbard's son (of Paris) aged about 21, who was killed while he was felling trees. How uncertain is this life.

Friday, June 24th, light westerly airs and warm. Anthony Bennett at work at the carding mill for John Shaw (Shaw did not conduct the business there very long.) Dunham Jr. and Josiah Hill digging gravel to stop the water from breaking through the dam at the Steep Falls. Saturday, June 25th. Sundry persons hauling and sticking boards. Anthony Bennett at work for John Shaw on the carding machine. P. M. Setting glass at carding mill. At 8 some rain and squally.

Sunday, June 26th, wind easterly and cloudy. A meeting of the Congregation, at the center of town. P. M. A fine rain.

Monday, June 27th, wind S. E. and cloudy. John Richardson, Levi Frank and Josiah Hill and John Shaw at work on the dam at the Steep Falls. Asa Jr. wedding in the east side of the Great Pond. (Richardson now the east side of the Great Pond, "Square Arthur Buck place. Hill on Hill Mt., now owned by Editor Fred W. Sanborn).

Tuesday, June 28th. Wind S. and warm. Eben Cobb at work on the dam at the Steep Falls.

Wednesday, June 29th. Wind and weather as yesterday. Several persons at work on sundries jobs.

Thursday, June 30th, wind and weather do. I went to Paris and took up Doctor (Alfred) Barrett's note of $100, in order to send to him by the next Post. (Dr. Barrett was the second physician to settle in Norway. He came here just after the census was taken in 1800. It seems by this journal that he had removed—it does not appear where, but to a more prosperous locality for him, before July 1, 1803. While here, he had borrowed the some in Paris—perhaps of Sam'l. Rawson or one of the Stovells).

Friday, July 1st, wind variable and cloudy. Isaac Cobb and Asa Jr. at work in the garden. (Isaac Cobb was a Revolutionary soldier. He lived on what is known as the Dinsmore farm, on the east side of the lake). At 4 p. m. set out some cabbage plants.

Saturday, July 2d. Wind easterly, with rain tout le jour (all the day). Isaac Cobb with Asa Dunham Jr., his nephew, hoeing potatoes, etc.

Sunday, July 3rd, wind northerly, blowing fresh and cool. At 10:30 a. m. Rev. Mr. Barnes came here and we went to meeting. P. M. S. Andrews Esq., came and went to meeting in company with us. He tarried the night to go to Paris with us on the morrow.

GREENWOOD CENTER

Carrie Cole visited with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Morgan, at Bryant Pond, a few days last week and she visited with her cousin, Mrs. E. T. Roberts, at Locke's Mills, Saturday night and Sunday.

THIS IS THE JOHN DEERE SPREADER

It is the only spreader having the beater on the axle. Main axle serves as shaft for the beater and other important parts.

HIGH WHEELS AND LOW BOX. Easier on both the horses and the man. The spreader can be easily loaded from either side or from behind.

THE BEATER IS MOUNTED ON ROLLER BEARINGS. The beater drive gears are enclosed and run in a bath of oil. No clutches, no chains and no belts.

THE JOHN DEERE SPREADER IS VERY SIMPLE. Only about half the parts that are necessary on the ordinary spreader.

THE LOAD MOVES ON ROLLERS.

THE BEATER RUNS NEAR THE GROUND.

THE PRICE IS NO HIGHER.

With special sport equipment, no smarter car than this Smart as a racing craft to begin with. Long and low... with rakish, youthful lines. But with special sport equipment... it's even smarter. The peer of any car in its class.

Six wire wheels... their colors contrasting with body shades. Spares carried jauntily forward in special fender wells. A trunk rack behind... suggesting a series of week-end journeys. There's real style, if you ever saw it. There's swank... snap... personality.

Add to all this the charm of bodies by Fisher. The deep-cushioned comfort and luxury that Fisher bodies provide. Then you'll find the All-American Six leagues ahead of any rival. And you'll marvel again at its truly remarkable price.

JESUS TEACHING IN THE TEMPLE

LESSON TEXT—Mark 12:13-14.
GOLDEN TEXT—"He taught them as one having authority."

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Answers
Some Hard Questions.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Teaches Great Duties.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Jesus Answers His Critics.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Love, the Law of the Kingdom.

1. The Parable of the Husbandmen (vv. 1-12).

Having put the scribes, chief priests and elders to confusion by a skilful counter question when they demanded to know His authority, Jesus by means of a story they could understand of vineyard authority and charges them with betrayal of trust and with plotting to murder the very Son of God. His teaching cut them to the quick, and they sought to lay hands upon Him, but desisted for fear of the people.

2. The vineyard (v. 1), represented Israel (See Ps. 80 and Isa. 5).

The husbandmen (v. 1) represented the rulers who were charged with responsibility for the spiritual interests of the people.

3. Messengers (vv. 2-5) represented the prophets whom God sent to Israel, even including John the Baptist.

4. The Son (vv. 6-8) represented Jesus Himself.

5. The judgment of the Lord of the vineyard (v. 9). This represented the time when the Jews shall be brought to account for their treatment of the servants of God and of Jesus Himself.

6. The Tribute Money (vv. 13-17).

They already would have gladly taken Him by violence and killed Him, but they feared the people. In order to destroy Him they seek to discredit Him among the people (v. 13).

1. Their question (v. 14).

"Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar, or not?" The Pharisees contended that since God was the real King of Israel, it was not obligatory, yet, it was even sinful to give tribute (taxes) to a heathen king. The Herodians were supporters of Herod; with flattery on their lips, they put this subtle question. For Him to answer "Yes" would have discredited Him with the people, and to have said "No" would have made Him liable to arrest as an enemy of the government.

2. Jesus' reply (vv. 15-17).

He asks that a coin be brought and inquires whose image and superscription it bears, declaring that those who accept the coin of Caesar should pay taxes to Caesar. In this reply the Lord escapes their trap and enunciates a principle which applies to all time and conditions as to the Christian's responsibility to civil government.

III. The Resurrection of the Dead (vv. 18-27).

The Pharisees and Herodians being silent, the Sadducees came with a question which involved not only immortality but the resurrection of the body. They denied the reality of the resurrection, and believed not in angel nor spirit (Acts 23:8).

1. The case proposed (vv. 19-23).

The law of Moses made it not only legal but morally binding in the case of a man dying without children for his brother to take his wife (Deut. 25:5). They proposed the case of a woman married successively to seven brothers. They ask whose wife she will be in the resurrection.

2. Jesus' reply (vv. 24-26).

By a quotation from the Mosaic law (Ex. 3:6) He proves the resurrection of the dead, and their continued existence after death as glorified beings. He shows that marriage is for this present life. He points out that their great error was due to two things:

(1) Ignorance of the Scriptures (v. 24). In the very Scriptures which they professed to believe was positive proof of the resurrection (Ex. 3:6).

(2) Ignorance of the power of God (v. 24). God is able to provide a life where there is no death, no births or marriages.

IV. The Great Commandment of the Law (vv. 28-34).

Christ's answer shows marvelous insight. He sums up man's whole duty in one word—love. "The first and great commandment is supreme and undivided love of God. The second is like unto it in that love is its center, but love for our neighbor in the measure that we love ourselves. Having put His questioners to silence, Jesus now puts to them a question which involves the central doctrine of the Christian faith—the person of Christ (vv. 28-40). Is He human or divine, or both?

Some Good Advice

"There is nothing more that I can say. Christ is before you to take freely; accept Him; trust Him; believe what He says; assume that you are His and behave as if you were."—Alexander White.

Without Love

"Without first love we may retain ceaseless activity, immaculate purity, severest orthodoxy, but there will be no light shining in a dark place."—G. Campbell Morgan.

EAST OTISFIELD

East Otisfield Folks Return from South

William Spurr and mother have returned from West Newbury, Mass., where they spent the winter. They motored back and visited places of interest on the way. Stayed a night in Louisville, Ga., in the house that Gen. Sherman stood in at which he made his famous march to the sea. He took a liking to the southern girls who lived there, so did not burn that house as he did the rest.

They also went to Mt. Vernon and went through the grounds and house and saw everything as it was when Gen. Washington lived there. From there they went to the battlefield of Gettysburg, saw the monument to the 17th Me. Reg. in the wheat field the place where an "Uncle" father was wounded in that battle. They found nice hard roads all the way and in Georgia the peach trees were in full bloom and trees all leaved out, but met quite a contrast on nearing home, as a few days before there had been a fall of eighteen inches of snow and ruts of mud, snow and water were abundant.

The Spurr have served several winters in Florida and the past one was rather cooler than usual, but all right for northern folks.

NORTH HARRISON

The mud holes by Norton Jilison's and Lewis Stone's are not gaining any. Cars are having to be pulled through every day.

Maurice Miller was through this vicinity, recently, buying cows and also doing his line of work.

The telephone lines throughout this vicinity are being repaired this spring; somehow the electric line has caused trouble.

Charles Jordan has recently lost another horse and purchased one of John Grover.

Dr. Wright, at Bolster's Mills, is doing a big business in chickens, hatching chicks and selling the day old.

Roy Dresser spent several days recently in Lewiston, on business.

Flora Jordan has gone to Westbrook to do housework.

Eva Stokes is working for Mrs. Fred Weston while Mrs. Weston has boarders.

Frank Stokes is doing some work for Mrs. Lizzie Edwards.

Mrs. Hazel Stokes spent the day at Harold Caswell's, recently.

Plumber's Meeting

Will Be Held June 12 and 13, at Orono

The College of Technology through its department of Civil Engineering in conjunction with the University Extension Division is cooperating with the Maine State Association of Master Plumbers in offering one of the finest opportunities for the plumbers of the state to get together. This conference will be held on the University of Maine campus June 12th and 13th.

A very master plumber is expected to attend. Journeymen and apprentices are more than welcome. The time of the meeting is such that it will afford an opportunity for many plumbers to bring their wives and families and to make the two-day stay on the campus a real picnic.

Program has been worked out for the women and provision will be made to take care of any children who may come.

This is one of the many ways in which the University is attempting to meet the needs of the people in the state.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Love, the Law of the Kingdom.

1. The Parable of the Husbandman (vs. 1-12).
Having put the scribes, chief priests and elders to confusion by a skillful counter question when they demanded to know His authority, Jesus by means of a story lay before them His claim of divine authority, and charges them with betrayal of trust and with plotting to murder the very Son of God. His teaching cut them to the quick, and they sought to lay hands upon Him, but desisted for fear of the people.

2. The vineyard (v. 13), represented Israel (See Ps. 80 and Isa. 5).
3. The husbandmen (v. 1) represented the rulers who were charged with responsibility for the spiritual interests of the people.

4. Messengers (vs. 2-5) represented the prophets whom God sent to Israel, even including John the Baptist.

5. The judgment of the Lord of the vineyard (v. 9). This represented the time when the Jews shall be brought to account for their treatment of the servants of God and of Jesus Himself.

6. The Tribute Money (vs. 13-17).
They already would have gladly taken Him by violence and killed Him, but they feared the people. In order to destroy Him they seek to discredit Him among the people (v. 13).

7. The question (v. 14).
"Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar, or not?" The Pharisees contended that since God was the real King of Israel, it was not obligatory, yet, it was even sinful to give tribute (taxes) to a heathen king. The Herodians were supporters of Herod; with flattery on their lips, they put this subtle question to Jesus.

8. The Resurrection of the Dead (vs. 18-27).
The Pharisees and Herodians being silenced, the Sadducees came with a question which involved not only immortality but the resurrection of the body. They denied the reality of the resurrection, and believed not in angel nor spirit (Acts 23:8).

9. The case proposed (vs. 19-23).
The law of Moses made it not only legal but morally binding in the case of a man dying without children for his brother to take his wife (Deut. 25:5). They propose the case of a woman married successively to seven brothers. They ask whose wife she will be in the resurrection.

10. Jesus' reply (vs. 24-26).
By a quotation from the Mosaic law (Ex. 3:6) He proves the resurrection of the dead, and their continued existence after death as glorified beings. He shows that marriage is for this present life. He points out that their great error was due to two things:

(1) Ignorance of the Scriptures (v. 21). In the very Scriptures which they professed to believe was positive proof of the resurrection (Ex. 3:6).

(2) Ignorance of the power of God (v. 22). God is able to provide a life where there is no death, no births or marriages.

11. The Great Commandment of the Law (vs. 28-34).
Christ's answer shows marvelous insight. He sums up man's whole duty in one word—love. The first and great commandment is supreme and undivided love of God. The second is like unto it in that love is its center, but love for our neighbor in the measure that we love ourselves. Having put His questioners to silence, Jesus now puts to them a question which involves the central doctrine of the Christian faith—the person of Christ (vs. 35-40). Is He human or divine, or both?

Some Good Advice

"There is nothing more that I can say. Christ is before you to take free-ty; accept Him; trust Him; believe what He says; assume that you are His and behave as if you were.—Alexander Whyte.

Without Love

"Without first love we may retain ceaseless activity, immaculate purity, severest orthodoxy, but there will be no light shining in a dark place.—G. Campbell Morgan.

EAST OTISFIELD

East Otisfield Folks Return from South

William Spurr and mother have returned from West Palm Beach, Fla., where they spent the winter. They returned back and visited places of interest on the way. Stayed a night in Louisville, Ga., in the house of Gen. Sherman.

March to the sea. He made his famous march to the sea. He took a liking to the southern girls who lived there, so did not burn that house as he did the rest. They also went to Ft. Venable and went through the grounds and house and saw everything as it was when Gen. Washington lived there. From there they went to the battlefield of Gettysburg, saw the monument to the 17th Me. Reg.

The father was wounded in that battle. They found nice hard roads all the way and in Georgia the peach trees were in full bloom and trees all leveled out, but met quite a contrast on nearing home, as a few days before there had been a fall of eighteen inches of snow and ruts of mud, snow and water were abundant.

The Spurr have spent several winters in Florida and the past one was rather cooler than usual, but all right for northern folks.

NORTH HARRISON

The mud holes by Norton Wilson's and Lena Stone's are not gaining any. Cars are having to be pulled through every day.

Maurice Miller was through this vicinity, recently, by using cows and also doing his line of work.

The telephone lines throughout this vicinity are being repaired this spring; somehow the electric line has caused trouble.

Charles Jordan has recently lost another horse and purchased one of John Grover.

Dr. Wright, at Bolster's Mills, is doing a big business in chickens, hatching chicks and selling eggs for hatching.

Roy Dresser spent several days recently in Lewiston, on business.

Flora Stokes has gone to Westbrook to do housework.

Eva Stokes is working for Mrs. Fred Weston while Mrs. Weston has boarders.

Frank Stokes is doing some work for Mrs. Lizette Edwards.

Mrs. Ethel Skilling spent the day at Harold Caswell's, recently.

Plumber's Meeting

Will Be Held June 12 and 13, at Orono

The College of Technology through its department of Civil Engineering in conjunction with the University Extension Division is cooperating with the Maine State Association of Master Plumbers in offering one of the finest opportunities for the plumbers of the state to get together. This Conference will be held on the University of Maine campus June 12th and 13th.

Every master plumber is expected to attend. Journeymen and apprentices are more than welcome. The time of the meeting is such that it will afford an opportunity for many plumbers to bring their wives and families and to make the two-day stay on the campus a real picnic.

A program has been worked out for the women and provision will be made to take care of any children who may come.

This is one of the many ways in which the University is attempting to meet the needs of the people in the state.

Don't Neglect Your Kidneys!

You Can't Be Well When Kidneys Act Sluggishly.

Do you find yourself running down, always tired, nervous and depressed? Are you stiff and aching, subject to nagging backache, drowsy, headache and dizzy spells? Are kidney excretions scanty, too frequent or burning in passage? Too often this indicates sluggish kidneys and should be neglected.

Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, increase the secretion of the kidneys and thus aid in the elimination of waste impurities. Doan's are endorsed everywhere. Ask your neighbor!
